INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS ROMANCE LANGUAGES (IERL)

French & Francophone Studies Track (5.13.15)

Student __________________________________________ Date ________________
Graduation date ___________________ College ____________________________
First Major ______________ Second Major ____________ Minor _____________
Foreign study __________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________

1. Math requirement
Calculus I
Calculus II

2. Required courses in Economics
ECON 10010/20010 _______ ECON 10020/20020 _______
ECON 30010 _______ ECON 30020 _______
ECON 30330 _______ ECON 30331 _______
Two of the following:
ECON 40700 _______ ECON 40710 _______
ECON 40720 _______ ECON 40800 _______
_______________________________________________________________________

3. Required 1.0-credit course, “Exploring International Economics” (spring)
LLRO 33000 _____________

In general, courses at the 20202 and above level can count towards the requirements.

1. ROFR 20202 or above ______________
2. ROFR 30310 or 30320 ______________
3. Two of the following: ROFR 30710 _______ ROFR 30720 _______
   ROFR 37500 _______ Other ___________
4. Two 40000-level courses in French culture, literature or related fields (possibly from study abroad in advanced-level program)¹
   ROFR 4XXXX ____________ ROFR 4XXXX ____________

*(Class of 2018 and thereafter)
1. ROFR 30320 ______________
2. Two of the following:
   ROFR 27500 _______ ROFR 30310 _______
   ROFR 30710 _______ ROFR 30720 _______
   ROFR 306xx ___________
3. Two 400-level courses in French culture, literature, or related fields (possibly from study abroad in advanced-level program)²
   ROFR 4XXXX ____________ ROFR 4XXXX ____________

5. Required 3.0 credits course, “Senior Research Project”
LLRO 48100 _____________

¹ ROFR 53000 (Senior Seminar) may replace one 40000-level course
² ROFR 53000 (Senior Seminar) may replace one of the ROFR 4XXXX courses.
Senior Research Project LLRO 48100

As part of the International Economics major, students are required to complete a project in their Senior year which combines the Economics and Language and Literatures portions of the curriculum. There are three paths that students can follow to complete this requirement.

Choose one of three options:

1. Senior Research Project. The Senior Research Project is a one-semester course resulting in the completion of a research paper, which combines the language, and cultural aspects of your study with Economics. You can explore a variety of topics, some more quantitative than others. The guidelines are set out below.

2. Senior Thesis. The senior thesis, as defined by the College of Arts & Letters, will replace the joint-capstone thesis/project.

3. In exceptional circumstances, Senior Seminar (53000) in your language specific program or an Economics Seminar. (With approval of DUSs in Romance Languages and Economics.) If you select option 3, counting Senior Seminar for the Senior Research Project, then you can't use Senior Seminar to replace one of the 40000-level courses.

Guidelines for Senior Research Project

1. The final paper should be 20-25 pages in length.
2. The paper may be written in English.
3. 30% or 3-5 sources should be in the target language.
4. By the end of fall semester, you should have a topic and advisor so you can begin work right away in the Spring. (Department DUSs can assist with finding advisors.)
5. Rough outline of due dates in the Spring

   Feb. 15 Preliminary literature review

   March 15 Draft of analytical portion of paper. This might include statistical analysis, synthesis of other works, analysis of texts.

   April 15 Final paper done and ready for review by advisor or other readers

(Revised 05.13.15)