

Italian Minor

The Italian major on the Italian Studies requires 5 courses that total at least 15 credits beginning at 20201/ 20111 or above, consisting of:

- 1.) 3 courses taught in Italian: ROIT 20201 or ROIT 20111, ROIT 20202, ROIT 30310 (Passage to Italy – recommended) or the equivalent.
- 2.) 2 electives: These courses may be Italian Studies courses taught in English. These courses must be taught at the 30000-level or above.

Equivalent literature and culture courses from international study programs or other universities may be substituted with departmental approval. No more than three courses may be substituted from foreign study or other universities.

AP or SAT credit may not apply toward the major.

Language / literature / culture courses are taught in Italian, and usually originate in the Italian program (ROIT). They generally focus on language, literature, cinema, and general Italian culture and civilization.

Italian studies courses are on Italian subjects but may be taught in either English or in Italian. Students are allowed to take related course in English outside of the department of Romance Languages and Literatures (for example, in Art History, in Anthropology, Music, FTT, Classics, Architecture, Political Science, etc.) with the approval of the Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies in Italian. These courses will be counted as electives among the Italian Studies courses.
