

SUPPLEMENTARY MAJOR IN FRENCH AND FRANCOPHONE STUDIES

Name_ ID #

Advisor_ Date

Advisor's Signature

The requirements for a supplementary major in French and Francophone Studies include demonstrated competency in the language and successful completion of 24 credit hours or 8 courses at or above ROFR 20202. At least half of the major courses must be taken in residence at Notre Dame. Of the 8 required courses, at least two must be at the 40000-level or higher. Required among the 8 courses is ROFR 30310: The Art of Interpretation, which must be taken at Notre Dame. Any substitutions or exceptions to the below program requires DUS approval. AP credits may not be applied to the supplementary major.

WORKSHEET

Course Number	Course Title	Credits	Sem/Yr	Grade
1. ROFR 30310 (TO BE COMPLETED BY THE END OF JUNIOR YEAR)	The Art of Interpretation	3
2. One course from pre-1800		3
3. One course from post-1800		3
4. ROFR 20202 or higher		3
5. ROFR 20202 or higher		3
6. ROFR 20202 or higher		3
7. ROFR 40000-level		3
8. ROFR 40000-level		3

(Updated Nov 2020)