

International Economics Romance Languages (IERL) – Italian Studies

The IERL major with a concentration in Italian requires a minimum of 8 courses in Economics and 6 in Italian beginning at 20202 or above. Students are also required to take a one-credit course, “Exploring International Economics,” and must complete a senior research project or equivalent designed to integrate their studies of economics and language and culture.

Equivalent literature and culture courses from international study programs or other universities may be substituted with departmental approval. A minimum of fifty percent of the requirements for the Italian concentration must be taken in residence at Notre Dame. AP or SAT credit may not be applied toward the major.

Students are allowed to take one related course in English outside of the department of Romance Languages and Literatures or one course in Italian outside of the department with the approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies (DUS), that can count as an advanced elective toward the major.
